

LETTER CIRCULAR

Date: 7th December 2022

Ref: DLAP 290/2022

To: Permanent Secretary, Director Generals, Directors, CIO, All Heads of College Network and Heads of Primary Schools (State and Non-State), EOs and Heads of Entities

From: David Muscat, CEO, National Literacy Agency

Subject: Soul Speak programme (Titkellem Ruġna)

The National Literacy Agency, in collaboration with Spiritual Development in Schools, is organising again the programme entitled 'Soul Speak' (Titkellem Ruġna) for primary children from Year 4 till Year 6 (8-10 year old).

These sessions are an excellent opportunity for children to train in the Writing Process through imaginative and reflective activities which help children to pray in a creative way. Throughout these sessions, the children will be provided with resources in both English and Maltese to help them express themselves in their preferred language. Age-appropriate level in both English and Maltese is expected from applicants.

At the end of the programme, an exhibition of the childrens' work will be organised and a celebration activity where a certificate is awarded to these who attend and participate in all four sessions.

Venue:	The National Literacy Agency National Curriculum Centre (NCC) Joseph Abela Scolaro Street, Ħamrun
Day:	Wednesday
When:	4 sessions from the 10th January till 7th February 2023
